14. Relocation:

- a) If a parent wishes to relocate the child(ren) from their primary residence, he or she must have the agreement of the other parent or permission from a judge.
- b) Relocation is defined as follows:
  - I. From a primary residence in Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, or Will County: if the move will be to a new residence in Illinois more than 25 miles from the current residence.
  - II. From a primary residence in any other Illinois county: if the move will be to a new residence in Illinois more than 50 miles from the current residence.
  - III. From a primary residence anywhere in Illinois to a new residence out of Illinois: if the move will be more than 25 miles from the current residence.
- c) A parent who has been allocated a majority of the parenting time or either parent who has been allocated equal parenting time may seek to relocate with the child(ren).
- d) The parent seeking to relocate shall provide at minimum sixty (60) days written notice before the relocation unless such notice is impracticable.
 At minimum the party must provide the following:
  - I. The intended date of the parent's relocation.
  - II. The address of the new residence, if known.
  - III. The length of time the relocation will last if the relocation is not for an indefinite or permanent period.
- e) If the non-relocating parent signs the notice provided by the relocating parent and the relocating parent files the notice with the court, the relocation shall be allowed without any further court action. The court shall modify the parenting plan or allocation judgment to accommodate a parent's relocation as agreed by the parties as long as the agreed modification is in the child's best interests. If the non-relocating parent objects to the relocation, fails to sign the notice or the parties cannot agree on modifying the parenting plan or allocation judgment, the parent seeking relation must file a petition seeking permission or relocate.

f) If a parent moves with the child twenty-five (25) miles or less from the child’s current primary residence to a new primary residence outside Illinois, Illinois continues to be the home state of the child. Any subsequent move from the new primary residence outside Illinois greater than twenty five (25) miles from the child’s original primary residence in Illinois must be in compliance with 750 ILCS 5/609.2.

15. Mediation / Conflicts:

- Mediation is not appropriate as there is history of domestic violence between the parties.
- The Parties are required to go to mediation if they cannot agree on issues covered by this parenting plan, such as allocation of parenting time or allocation of parental responsibilities. The Parties shall enter into mediation in an attempt to resolve said disputes prior to proceeding to hearing before the Court. The cost of mediation shall be shared equally by the parties. If the parties cannot reach an agreement in mediation, the party with the complaint or the party wishing to change the parenting plan may initiate court proceedings.
